Chapels and churches

43 results

in Carnac

Chapel and fountain of the Madeleine

The chapel site was once a leper colony. The present chapel was rebuilt in 1976. The chapel is staffed in summer by local residents. The pardon takes place in July. Next to the chapel, you'll discover its fountain, whose source is prized for curing fever and skin diseases.

02 97 52 13 52 Village de Kergueavec

in Camors

Saint-Sané Church

The most striking feature is the altarpiece in the south chapel, which depicts the scene of the beheading of St. John the Baptist in starkly realistic relief. Records show that Saint-Sané church dates back to 1640, but it has been modified by annexes added to the nave at various times. The church…

02 97 24 79 18 / +33 2 97 24 79 18 Bourg

in Auray

Saint-Gildas Church

The 17th-century parish church of Saint-Gildas was built in place of a 12th-century priory and chapel, which had fallen into disrepair. Its architecture is a blend of medieval and brocaded forms. Listed as a Monument Historique since 1995, the Church of Saint-Gildas overlooks the town of Auray with…

02 97 24 09 75 7 place Gabriel Deshayes in Saint-Philibert

Church of Our Lady of the Nativity

This chapel, which became a church when the parish of Saint-Philibert was created, is set in magnificent surroundings. Extended several times, it retains a wealth of interesting furnishings, including statues, an altarpiece and a collection of ex-votos offering a panorama of the country's various…

4 Rue de la Chapelle

in Plumergat

Notre-Dame de Gornévec chapel

The chapel is believed to have been built in the 11th century by the monks of Saint-Gildas de Rhuys, who owned property and land in the village. The site was still thriving in the 19th century, frequented by wet nurses who came here to pray for abundant milk. In the 20th century, the roof…

02 97 56 14 56 Village de Gornévec

in Brech

Chapelle Notre-Dame de la Route

Notre-Dame de la route chapel was built in 1963 from the stones of ruined local chapels. It's a modern chapel in a green setting. The chapel is the work of architect Yves Guillou, who headed one of Brittany's leading architectural firms. He is considered the architect who modernized Brittany.…

+33 2 97 24 09 75 Mané-Salut to 31/12/2026 in 10:00

in Ploemel

Saint-Méen chapel

Built in the 16th century and listed as a Monument Historique, the Saint-Méen chapel is notable for the presence of a seigneurial chapel to the south of the choir. It boasts remarkable stained glass windows, including the choir window illustrating the Passion of Christ, dated 1556 (listed as a…

Saint-Méen

in Ploemel

Chapelle Notre-Dame de Recouvrance

Parallel to the parish church, the Notre-Dame de Recouvrance chapel, listed as a historic monument, dates from the 16th century. Dedicated to sailors, the chapel is dedicated to Notre-Dame de Recouvrance. The chapel was a place of pilgrimage for seafarers' mothers and wives who had no news of their…

+33 2 97 24 09 75 Place De La Mairie

in Erdeven

Church of St Peter and St Paul

Dating back to 1755, the granite bell tower features a square tower topped by an octagonal section ending in a lantern. The aisles were added to the nave in 1832, giving it its current appearance. A cross is leaning against the south gable, its granite base bearing the date 1851.

Place de l'Eglise

in Plouharnel

Chapelle Sainte-Barbe

This rectangular chapel features buttresses with recesses and pinnacles, crosses and rampant cabbages. It has a square bell tower above the west door, which is framed by belfries. One of the south windows features a stone pattern in the shape of a fleur-de-lis, a very rare motif in the region,…

07 88 57 75 69 Sainte-Barbe

in Brech

Saint-Quirin chapel

This 17th-century classical-style chapel houses a treasure trove: a listed altarpiece in tufa and Maine marble, attributed to the famous sculptor and architect Olivier Martinet. The chapel was enlarged in 1676. Restored in the late 20th century, the building is characterized by its entirely…

+33 2 97 24 09 75 Village De St Guerin

in Landaul

Church of Sainte-Marie Madeleine and Saint-Théleau

Located in the heart of the village of Landaul, the 15th-century parish church of Sainte-Marie-Madeleine or Saint-Théleau is the result of the merger of two 19th-century religious buildings: the former church of Sainte-Marie-Madeleine and the chapel of Notre-Dame-de-Bon-Secours. Discover its…

Place de l'Église

in Plouharnel

Chapelle Notre-Dame des Fleurs

Facing the bay of Plouharnel, this 16th-century chapel is listed as a Monument Historique.enlarged in the 18th century, it was damaged during the Revolution and the Second World War, and has since been restored.the chapel houses a fine collection of furnishings, the most remarkable of which is an…

02 97 52 32 93 Rue Notre Dame des Fleurs

in Brech

Champ-des-Martyrs

The site is a memorial to the Royalists who were shot following the landing at Quiberon in 1795. The 19th-century expiatory chapel is listed and accessible daily, but the chapel is closed.

02 97 24 09 75 Toubaldeu in Landévant

Chapel of Notre-Dame de Locmaria

The Notre-Dame de Locmaria chapel, listed as a Monument Historique, is the oldest religious building in the commune. It features a 15th-century polychrome roof frame, which was restored in 2009. The frame and paintings are exceptional for their rarity, and the decor as a whole is remarkable for…

+33 2 97 24 09 75 Locmaria Er Houët

in Carnac

Saint-Guénolé chapel, fountain and cross at Coët à Tous

Built in 1851, it replaces a building (bearing the same name) built in 1785 below the hill (date inscribed on a stone of the current bell tower). A sarcophagus was found near the 1766 chapel. Legend had it that it belonged to Saint-Guénolé. In reality, however, the identity of the coffin's…

Coët à Tous

in Erdeven

Chapel of the Seven Saints

Refurbished in 1899. It soon fell into disrepair, and attempts to protect it only accelerated its decline. At the end of the 20th century, an association took charge of the building and turned it into the beautiful edifice we see today, with its exposed semicircular roof frame. The pediment bears a…

Les Sept Saints

in Erdeven

Saint-Guillaume chapel

Rebuilt in 1885, its western facade features a small, low coved door surmounted by a small niche and a blind rose window. There is a door and two windows on the north façade, and three windows on the south façade, all with 19th-century stained glass.

Lisveur

in Locmariaquer

Church of Notre-Dame de Kerdro

With its Romanesque choir and capitals, this church is an important example of mid-Medieval Romanesque architecture. It features two 17th-century altarpieces, and the nave was enlarged in the 19th century. Several elements and parts of the building are listed as Historic Monuments. Open every day…

2 Place du Général de Gaulle

in Saint-Pierre-Quiberon

Chapel of Notre-Dame de Lotivy

Located in the Portivy district, on the site of a former priory, this chapel, rebuilt in the 19th century, is the oldest Christian site in the commune. With its simple architecture, the building is home to a number of ex-votos, testifying to the great devotion shown to Notre Dame by…

Place de la Chapelle

in Camors

Chêne Bé-Er-Sant (Saint's Tomb)

In the heart of the Floranges forest, shoes are placed at the foot of an oak tree. Accessible daily via the D779 between Camors and Bieuzy-Lanvaux.

02 97 24 09 75 Forêt de Floranges

in Auray

Chapelle du Saint-Esprit

The Duke of Brittany, Jean II, crowned in Rennes in 1286, appreciated Auray. He is said to have founded a chapel of the Holy Sepulchre. It was located to the south-east of the present building. It still existed in the 18th century and housed a recumbent statue of Christ. Architects distinguish two…

+33 2 97 24 09 75 Place Du Four Mollet in Locoal-Mendon

Saint-Goal Church

In the heart of the Ria d'Étel, on the heights of the Baie de Locoal, stands the church of Saint-Goal, built on the presumed site of its patron saint's hermitage. Transferred in 1037 to the Benedictines of Redon Abbey, the monastery became a priory. A chapel was built in the 11th / 12th century.…

Locoal

in Erdeven

Lann Groez chapel

It has a full-length granite bench and a door with decorated pilasters dating from the late 16th century. Wooden altar behind which is an altarpiece-lambris. On the sides, two false niches with no statues. In the south wall, a shelf in a niche framed by 16th-century columns with capitals.

Place de l'Eglise

in Belz

Saint-Cado chapel

Located on the famous island in the Rivière d'Étel and the oldest religious building in the commune, the chapel's history, architecture and exceptional setting make it a major, lively site for worship, heritage and tourism. Open to the public every day, or on the occasion of masses or cultural…

9 Plassen Sant Kado

in Ploemel

Saint-Laurent chapel

Built in the 16th century in the flamboyant Gothic style, the interior contains statues, an ancient bell and a marine ex-voto. Open year-round, 10am-6pm. Pardon on 2nd Sunday in August.

02 97 24 09 75 Saint-Laurent

in Pluvigner

Saint-Guigner church

Classified goldsmith's and silversmith's collection, contemporary organ, remains of the Notre-Dame des Orties chapel, Saint-Adrien chapel and monumental fountain nearby. Open Thursdays, 2:30 pm - 6 pm, from July 9 to August 27 (with reception), and daily all year round. Discovery tour offered as…

02 97 24 09 75 Place Notre Dame des Orties

in Ploemel

Notre-Dame de Pitié chapel

This chapel, which is believed to have been built in the second half of the 14th century, has preserved traces of Romanesque architecture, despite later alterations. It contains an exceptional tombstone, listed as a Monument Historique. The Pierre de Broërec tombstone, listed as a Monument…

Locmaria

in Crach

Plas-Kaër chapel

According to tradition, the Plas-Kaër chapel was built on the site of an earlier 15th-century chapel. Built in the neo-Gothic style at the end of the 19th century, it illustrates the revival of the Catholic Church at a time of tension with the secular Republic. Worth a visit are the marine…

Plas Kaer

in Plumergat

Trinity Chapel

Plumergat is one of Brittany's earliest parishes, created around the 6th century when Bretons from the Isle of Brittany (now Great Britain) immigrated to Armorique (now Brittany). Christianity has left its mark on the commune, which still boasts 11 churches and chapels. In fact, it's nicknamed "the…

02 97 24 09 75 Place Castil

in Pluvigner

Saint-Fiacre chapel

Located in the heart of the village of Trélécan, the chapel was built in the 15th century and has undergone various alterations over the centuries. The chapel has two choirs separated by two arcades resting on a pillar engraved with the date of construction in Roman numerals and Gothic…

in Camors

Saint-Goal chapel

According to tradition, the chapel at Locoal-Camors was Saint Goal's last hermitage and the place of his death. The chapel dates from the 15th century. It was remodeled around 1820. Today, it houses a wealth of statuary dating from the 16th and 18th centuries. A collection of liturgical vestments…

Place de la Chapelle

in Pontivy

Art in the chapels

Since its creation in 1992, L'art dans les chapelles has invited over 500 national and international artists to work in these remarkable heritage sites, most of which were built between the 15th and 16th centuries. Each work is specifically designed to be shown in the chapel assigned to the…

02 97 27 97 31 Les Bains Douches 11 Quai Presbourg in Pluneret

Sainte-Avoye chapel

This monument impresses by its size and physiognomy. The chapel houses a rare piece: a polychrome, Renaissance-style rood screen, entirely carved. Made of oak, it separates the choir from the nave, delimiting the space reserved for lords and clergy (the choir) from that reserved for the faithful…

02 22 76 03 45 Village de Sainte Avoye in Sainte-Anne-d'Auray

Sanctuary of Sainte-Anne d'Auray

The history of Sainte-Anne d'Auray is said to have begun in the 17th century, with the apparitions of Saint Anne, mother of Mary, to Yves Nicolazic, a pious village ploughman. At the time, Ste-Anne d'Auray was a hamlet called Ker Anna, "Anne's village" in Breton. The news spread throughout Brittany…

02 97 57 68 80 1 Rue De Vannes

in Erdeven

Chapelle St Germain

It has been restored several times. The date 1635 can be read on the chevet wall, against which stands an altarpiece made of rectangular compartments, with a square painting depicting the Repentance of Saint Peter in the center. There are several side niches with statues.

Saint-Germain

in Erdeven

Sainte-Brigitte chapel

The wooden altar table is supported by two granite pillars, and a cross houses a bas-relief of Saint Face. Former statues of Saint Brigitte and Saint Roch. The fountain is located below the chapel to the southeast, and bears the date 1864.

Lopérhet

in Erdeven

Saint-Sauveur chapel

It retains its typical Breton Renaissance appearance. The western facade features a molded round-arched doorway, and the original bell tower dominated by a short spire. The southern facade retains its long wall bench and a round-arched door between two flat pilasters, and three windows, one of…

Saint-Sauveur

in Carnac

Kergroix chapel

The Kergroix chapel dates back to the 16th century, but was rebuilt in 1951. The pardon of Notre Dame de la Croix takes place in September. The chapel is open to the public in summer.

Kergroix

in La Trinité-sur-Mer

Saint Joseph's Church

The village, situated on a hill, overlooks the port. It's made up of old fishermen's houses and a maze of narrow, dry-stone-walled streets. At the heart of this picturesque village, the church was originally a Carnac chapel. It became a church in 1865, when the commune of La Trinité-sur-Mer was…

02 97 55 72 21 Bourg

in Brech

La Chartreuse

La Chartreuse was built following the Battle of Auray, which pitted Jean de Montfort against his cousin and rival Charles de Blois for the Duchy of Brittany. The confrontation cost Charles de Blois his life and put an end to the War of the Breton Succession. In 1382, Jean IV de Montfort, now Duke…

Rue Pierre Allio Bp-50106

in Landaul

Saint-Maurille chapel

The choir window bears the date 1659, but there must have been an earlier chapel. The chapel is dedicated to Saint Maurille, but three other saints are also celebrated here: Saint Mamert, Saint Adrien, whose polychrome wooden statue depicts him holding his entrails in his hands, and Saint Durlo.…

02 97 24 09 75 Langombrac'h

in Auray

Charles-de-Blois Church

Overlooking the station district, with its high spire and medieval fortress decor, the Charles-de-Blois church is a striking and remarkable example of religious architecture from the 1930s. Charles de Blois was the pretender to the succession of the Duchy of Brittany, and died not far from the…

Place Léon Chevassu

Quiberon Bay Tourist Office www.baiedequiberon.bzh +33 (0)2 44 84 56 56