

Chapels and churches

20 résultats

in Landévant

Chapel of Our Lady of Locmaria

The Notre-Dame de Locmaria chapel, listed as a Historic Monument, is the oldest religious building in the town. It houses a polychrome frame from the 15th century, which was restored in 2009. This frame and its paintings are exceptional because of their rarity. The whole decor is remarkable because...

☎ +33 2 97 24 09 75 📍 Locmaria Er Houët

in Erdeven

Lann Groez Chapel

It has a full-length granite bench and a doorway with ornate pilasters dating from the late 16th century. Wooden altar behind which is a paneled altarpiece. On the sides, two false niches without a statue. In the south wall, a shelf in a niche framed by small columns with 16th century capitals.

📍 Place de l'Eglise

in Erdeven

Chapel of the Seven Saints

Refurbished in 1899. It quickly fell into disrepair and attempts to protect it only accelerated its decline. At the end of the 20th century, an association took charge of it to rebuild the beautiful building that we see today, with its exposed semi-circular frame. On the pediment, a plaque: Er seih...

📍 Les Sept Saints

in Sainte-Anne-d'Auray

Sanctuary of Ste-Anne d'Auray

The history of Sainte-Anne d'Auray would have started in the 17th century, with the apparitions of Saint Anne, mother of Marie, to Yves Nicolazic, pious laborer of the village. At the time, Ste-Anne d'Auray was a hamlet called Ker Anna, the "village of Anne" in Breton. During an apparition, she...

☎ 02 97 57 68 80 📍 1 Rue De Vannes

in Camors

Saint Sane

The most notable is the altarpiece of the south chapel. It provides in relief, with brutal realism, the scene of the beheading of John the Baptist (decapitation). According to records, the church Saint-Sane dates of 1640. However, it has been amended by annexes which have been grafted to the ship...

☎ 02 97 24 79 18 / +33 2 97 24 79 18 📍 Bourg

in Erdeven

Church of St Peter and St Paul

Dating from 1755, the bell tower, all in granite, consists of a square tower surmounted by an octagonal part ending in a lantern. The aisles came to widen the nave from 1832, giving it its current appearance. On the gable of the south is leaned a cross whose granite base bears the date of 1851.

📍 Place de l'Eglise

in Pontivy

Art in the chapels

Every summer for the past 30 years, Art in the Chapels has invited contemporary artists to dialogue with the religious heritage of the Blavet Valley and the Pontivy region. Signposted circuits lead you on a journey that links the landscape to the chapel, contemporary painting to polychrome...

☎ 02 97 51 97 31 📍 Les Bains Douches 11 Quai Presbourg

From 05/07/2024 in 14:00

in Plumergat

Trinity Chapel

Plumergat is one of the primitive parishes of Brittany created around the 6th century, during the immigration of the Bretons from the Ile de Bretagne (present-day Great Britain) to Armorica (present-day Brittany). Christianity has left its mark on the town, which still has 11 churches and chapels....

☎ 02 97 24 09 75 📍 Place Castil

in Brech

Saint Quirin Chapel

Dated from the 17th century, the chapel contains what is considered to be the most beautiful classical altarpiece in Morbihan. Built in tufa and Maine marble, this masterpiece, listed as a Historic Monument, is attributed to the Laval masters. The chapel is placed under the patronage of Saint...

☎ +33 2 97 24 09 75 📍 Village De St Guerin

in Auray

Chapel of the Holy Spirit

The Duke of Brittany, Jean II, crowned in Rennes in 1286, appreciated Auray. He would have founded a chapel of the Holy Sepulchre. It was located southeast of the current building. It still existed in the 18th century and housed a recumbent figure of Christ. The architects distinguish two phases of...

☎ +33 2 97 24 09 75 📍 Place Du Four Mollet

in Erdeven

Chapel of St. Germain

It has been restored several times. The date 1635 can be read in the wall of the chevet, against which is leaned an altarpiece made of rectangular compartments, in the center a square painting representing the Repentance of Saint Peter. There are several side niches bearing statues.

📍 Saint-Germain

in Erdeven

St Savior Chapel

It keeps its typical aspect of the Breton Renaissance. Western facade with a molded arched door, original bell tower dominated by a short spire. The southern facade retains its long wall bench and a semicircular doorway between two flat pilasters, and three windows, one of which has a pointed arch.

📍 Saint-Sauveur

in Plumergat

Chapel of Our Lady of Gornevec

The chapel was built in the 11th century by the monks of St. Gildas Rhuys, who owned property and land in the village. The site was still flourishing in the 19th century, attended by nurses who came to pray for an abundant milk. In the 20th century, its roof collapsed and the chapel fell into...

☎ 02 97 56 14 56 📍 Village de Gornévec

in Brech

The Charterhouse

The Chartreuse was built following the battle of Auray which opposed Jean de Montfort to his cousin and rival Charles de Blois, for the Duchy of Brittany. The confrontation cost the life of Charles de Blois and put an end to the War of Succession of Brittany. In 1382, Jean IV de Montfort, who...

📍 Rue Pierre Allio Bp-50106

in Auray

Saint-Gildas Church

From the 17th century, listed furniture including the major altarpiece and the 16th century recumbent statue of Christ. Open daily from 8:30 a.m. to 6:30 p.m.

☎ 02 97 24 09 75 📍 7 place Gabriel Deshayes

in Camors

Bé-er-Sant oak

In the heart of the Floranges forest, shoes are placed at the foot of an oak tree. This is a popular devotional site related to walking. Accessible every day by the D779 between Camors and Bieuzy-Lanvaux.

☎ 02 97 24 09 75 📍 Forêt de Floranges

in Plouharnel

Chapel of Our Lady of Flowers

Facing the bay of Plouharnel, the chapel built in the 16th century is listed as a Historic Monument. Enlarged in the 18th century, it suffered damage during the Revolution and the Second World War, then was restored. The chapel houses beautiful furniture, the most remarkable piece of which is an...

☎ 02 97 52 32 93 📍 Rue Notre Dame des Fleurs

in Brech

Chapel of Our Lady of the Road

The Notre-Dame de la route chapel was built in 1963 with stones from ruined local chapels. It is a modern chapel in a green setting. Its name was born from the many motorists who stopped there. It is the work of the architect Yves Guillou who ran one of the most important architectural firms in...

☎ +33 2 97 24 09 75 📍 Mané-Salut

in Pluneret

Chapelle Sainte-Avoye

This monument impresses with its physiognomy and dimensions. The chapel houses a rare piece: an entirely sculpted polychrome Renaissance style rood screen. In oak wood, it separates the choir from the nave and delimits the space reserved for the lords and the clergy (the choir) from that reserved...

☎ 02 97 24 09 75 📍 Village De Ste Avoye

in Brech

Champ-des-Martyrs

This site is a place of memory of the royalists shot following the landing of Quiberon in 1795. The expiatory chapel of the XIXth century is classified. Accessible every day, chapel closed. Hiking tour from the Chartreuse to the Champ des Martyrs every Friday in July and August.

☎ 02 97 24 09 75 📍 Toubaldu

