Beaches

52 results in Île-d'Houat

Treac'h er Goured beach

Considered one of Brittany's most beautiful beaches, the dune belt of Treac'h ar Goured stretches in an arc over 2 km long, to the east of the island of Houat. Joined in the middle by a small, damp valley and protected from the prevailing westerly winds, it enjoys a peaceful, relaxing atmosphere…

02 44 84 56 56

in Saint-Pierre-Quiberon

Kermahé Beach

Family-friendly, white-sand beach, plush beachfront villas. Children's beach club, swimming area, diving board, shaded parking lot, close to the port of Orange and shops, boules pitch, two volleyball courts at the beach entrance, public toilets.

02 44 84 56 56

in Saint-Pierre-Quiberon

Kerbourgnec Beach

Family beach with white sand in the form of a cove. Sailing club, protected stretch of water in the bay. Access slipway, channel and swimming area, shaded parking lot with access to the pond leisure park: tennis, boules, children's playground, picnic area.

02 44 84 56 56

in Locmariaquer

La Falaise Beach

La Falaise Beach, also known as the “big beach,” is very popular with families. It faces due south and overlooks the ocean. It is renowned for shore fishing during high tides. Located in front of the municipal campground and the RV park, it is the only supervised beach in the town. A lifeguard…

02 44 84 56 56 Plage de la falaise

in Saint-Pierre-Quiberon

Grand Rohu Beach

Family beach with white sand

Grand Rohu Beach

in Saint-Pierre-Quiberon

Penthièvre Ocean Beach

Supervised swimming in July and August, sand yachting, surfing, kitesurfing... handi-beach chair. Public toilets.

in Quiberon

Castéro Beach

Small family beach on the Quiberon Bay side. At high tide, the beach is completely covered! Parking and WC nearby.

02 44 84 56 56 Bd. de Castéro

in Saint-Pierre-Quiberon

Port Bara Beach

Access to the beach is prohibited due to the risk of rockfalls near the Port Blanc arch. Swimming is strictly prohibited along the entire Côte Sauvage stretch from Quiberon to Saint-Pierre Quiberon. Strong currents, rough seas, and rocky outcrops make this area dangerous: stay on the marked trails…

in Erdeven

Kerhillio Beach

This family-friendly white-sand beach offers magnificent views of the Quiberon peninsula and Belle-Île, with occasional glimpses of Groix. It is a popular venue for board sports such as sand yachting, surfing, kite-surfing and stand-up paddling, and hosts a number of water sports events and…

02 44 84 56 56 Lieu-dit Kerhillio Kerhillio

in Quiberon

Thalasso Beach

At the foot of the Sofitel Thalassa Sea and Spa and the Institut de Thalassothérapie, facing Belle-Ile-en-Mer, this small sandy cove is an ideal spot for Institut curistes, who access it directly via the Promenade Louison Bobet. Hikers passing through on the nearby trail can also enjoy a spot of…

02 44 84 56 56 Promenade Louison Bobet

in Plouharnel

La Guérite Beach

La Guérite Beach in Plouharnel is a true gem of Morbihan. Renowned for its fine sand and majestic dunes, it offers a pristine natural setting, ideal for recharging your batteries and escaping the daily grind. Take a dip in the clear waters and enjoy a refreshing swim. The beach is perfect for…

02 44 84 56 56

in Quiberon

Kermorvan Beach

Another launching beach on Quiberon Bay, with the Port-Haliguen marina in the distance. The sand here is more granular. Hikers on the GR34 can refresh their feet here and visit the pretty village of Kermorvan nearby.

02 44 84 56 56 Rue des Galets

in Erdeven

Kerouriec Beach

A family beach with coarser, more golden sand than Kerhillio, it is nonetheless very pleasant. Thanks to its curved shape and rocky points, it is a little more sheltered from the wind than the main beach. Although swimming is less suitable for toddlers, it's the ideal place to introduce them to…

02 44 84 56 56 Kerouriec

in Carnac

Grande Plage de Carnac

Rejuvenate in Southern Brittany, between the Bay of Quiberon and the Gulf of Morbihan! With its two kilometers of fine sand, Carnac's Grande Plage is the largest of the town's five beaches. With its two kilometers of white sand and southern exposure, it's a favorite with walkers. During the summer…

02 97 52 13 52 Boulevard de la plage

in Carnac

Beaumer beach

Well sheltered from the wind and in the shade, Beaumer beach lies to the east of Grande Plage, just past Pointe Churchill. Beaumer beach borders Men Du beach, which is located in the commune of La Trinité sur Mer. It's the ideal place for fishing on foot: clams, cockles, razor clams... for all you…

36 Avenue d'Orient

in Saint-Pierre-Quiberon

Kéraude Beach

Parking at the entrance to the village, slipway, first-aid station, channel for boats, supervised bathing area in summer (July and August). Disabled beach chair, diving platform, beach volleyball court, boat hire. Public toilets.

02 44 84 56 56 Plage de Kéraude

in Saint-Pierre-Quiberon

Penthièvre Bay Beach

Nautical activities

in Plouharnel

Sainte Barbe Beach

Escape to Sainte-Barbe beach in Plouharnel, a real gem. This fine sandy beach, surrounded by dunes and vegetation, offers an unspoilt natural setting for an unforgettable seaside experience. To find out how busy the Sainte Barbe beach parking lot is, click on the orange "View site" button. Enjoy…

Rue de la plage Sainte-Barbe

in Quiberon

Porigo Beach

Supervised sandy beach with lifeguard station, popular for its morning sunshine and proximity to the ASNQ sailing school. Seahorse service. Parking lot. Showers and WCs nearby.

02 44 84 56 56 Boulevard des Emigrés

in Plouharnel

Mané Guen Beach

Welcome to Mané Guen beach, a coastal treasure nestled in Plouharnel, Morbihan. This sandy beach, surrounded by breathtaking natural scenery, is the ideal place for an unforgettable Breton getaway. Enjoy safe swimming, long relaxing walks and water sports such as surfing and paddle boarding. Mané…

02 44 84 56 56 Mané Guen

in La Trinité-sur-Mer

Plage du Port

It's a small sandy beach with an easterly exposure, located along the side path and surrounded by lush greenery. It's the closest to the town center, and the view stretches from the Kerisper bridge to the end of the channel. It is only accessible from the coastal path (sentier des douaniers).

02 44 84 56 56 Plage du port

in Quiberon

Goviro Beach

Situated at the foot of the Sofitel Thalassa Sea and Spa and Camping Municipal du Goviro, opposite Belle-Ile-en-Mer, this small, sandy beach is an ideal place to relax. Hikers passing by on the nearby trail can also take a dip here before heading off again! A wheelchair for the disabled is…

02 44 84 56 56 Bd. du Goviro Promenade Louison Bobet

in Étel

Le Pradic beach

A pretty beach on the edge of the Ria d'Etel with a view of the Barre d'Etel. Close to the town center and with direct access from the Etel campsite. For inexperienced swimmers, beware of the current. Unsupervised beach. Pets welcome.

02 44 84 56 56 Pointe du Pradic

in Locmariaquer

Toul-Keun Beach

Toul Keun Beach is located in a cove. It’s ideal for learning to windsurf or sail a dinghy. This small beach at the end of an inlet is sheltered from the wind and waves. It’s perfect for families with young children. Plovers also regularly make their home here. A few parking spaces are…

02 44 84 56 56 Plage du Toul-Keun

in Quiberon

Goulvars Beach

Goulvars Beach

Very quiet beach with grainy sand. Swimming not supervised.

02 44 84 56 56 Bd Louison Bobet (en bas) Au pied de la résidence les 3 îles

in Carnac

Legenese Beach

Relax on the fine sands of Légenèse beach, cool off in its crystal-clear waters and make the most of your vacation in Morbihan. Located to the west of the Grande Plage and the Carnac Yacht Club, Plage de Légenèse is a very pleasant, family-friendly beach. In summer, this "small-scale" beach…

Boulevard de Légénèse

in Saint-Pierre-Quiberon

Rohu Beach

Rohu Beach

White sand beach. This beach extends into the commune of Quiberon, in continuity with Saint Julien beach and the Port Haliguen marina.

in Saint-Pierre-Quiberon

Pouladen beach known as Moulin Rouge

Swimming. Public toilets.

in Saint-Philibert

Kernevest Beach

Plage de Kernevest is a white sandy beach, popular with families, with parking nearby. A sailing club and sailing school are located in the Kernevest fort.

02 44 84 56 56 Plage de Kernevest

in Étel

Children's beach (Seawater)

Etel's children's beach (or "plan d'eau de mer") is the ideal place for family bathing. Close to the town center and bordered by a fine sandy beach, you can also take advantage of the cycle path, the nautical center, a children's play area and Sophie's merry-go-round. Unsupervised beach. Pets not…

02 44 84 56 56 Plan d'eau

in Quiberon

Conguel Beach

On the Pointe de Conguel, at the south-east end, the pedestrian-only Plage du Conguel is particularly quiet, especially as it is sheltered from westerly winds. Nearby, at the southern end of the Pointe, Plage de la Jument is a very quiet spot, far from the hustle and bustle of the town center! In…

02 44 84 56 56 Pointe du Conguel

in Carnac

Saint Colomban Beach

Saint Colomban beach is the most westerly beach in Carnac. All year round, the windsurfing spot at St Colomban is a renowned meeting place for top windsurfers.

02 97 52 13 52 Boulevard de l'Océan

in Quiberon

Saint-Julien Beach

A beach of fine sand and rocks, ideal for playing at low tide. Facing Quiberon Bay, you can see the Carnac coastline in the distance and watch the regattas!

02 44 84 56 56 Rue de la Petite Côte

in La Trinité-sur-Mer

Kerbihan Beach

Facing east, along the coastal path, it offers a lovely view of the channel with its ceaseless ballet of boats.

02 44 84 56 56 Kerbihan

in Locmariaquer

Valy Beach

Valy Beach, located due east in the Gulf of Morbihan, offers a beautiful view of the waters of the “little sea.” It is a gently sloping beach with fine sand. The town of Locmariaquer offers beach access and swimming carts on loan for people with disabilities. This equipment can be reserved…

02 44 84 56 56 Plage du Valy

in Saint-Pierre-Quiberon

Toul Bragne beach, also known as Océan beach

Family beach, swimming, kayaks. Public toilets.

in Carnac

Ty Bihan Beach

To the west of the Grande Plage, Ty Bihan beach is the place to relax for all ages, with a breathtaking view over Quiberon Bay. Every summer, the Dauphins club sets up shop here, offering a wide range of activities for children.

Ty Bihan

in Quiberon

Quiberon's long beach

In the heart of Quiberon, the Grande Plage, with its 900 meters of fine, south-facing sand, is accessible to all, including people with reduced mobility. You'll find bike parking, showers and WCs, tent rental and a beach club for your children. In summer, swimming is supervised from the lifeguard…

02 44 84 56 56 Boulevard Chanard

in Saint-Pierre-Quiberon

Fozo Beach

Fozo Beach

Family beach

in Plouharnel

Mentor Beach

Immerse yourself in the natural beauty of Plage du Mentor, a corner of paradise located in Plouharnel, Morbihan. This golden sand beach, surrounded by unspoilt coastal landscapes, is the perfect place for a tranquil getaway in Brittany. Plage du Mentor offers a multitude of activities for all ages.…

02 44 84 56 56

in Locmariaquer

Gledgen beach (Rolay)

Gledgen Beach, also known as Rolay Beach, is located between Falaise Beach and Kerpenhir Point, across from Port Navalo, and overlooks the ocean. From May through the end of July, Kentish plovers have taken to nesting there, often at the top of the beach, laying their eggs directly on the sand…

02 44 84 56 56 Plage du Rolay

in Saint-Philibert

Men Er Beleg beach

Men er Beleg beach, located in the Tréhennarvour cove, is bordered by a pine forest and stretches for 400 meters on a gentle slope.

02 44 84 56 56 Plage de Men Er Beleg

in Quiberon

Aérodrome Beach

A large, beautiful beach of fine sand, often sheltered from the wind and facing Quiberon Bay. It's a delight for bathers and thrill-seekers alike, who, depending on wind direction, will see small bi-planes and other small tourist airplanes appear offshore, facing the aerodrome runway just a few…

02 44 84 56 56 Bd. de la Teignouse

in Saint-Pierre-Quiberon

Kerhostin Beach

Below the village with its old fishing village and a few pretty villas, Kerhostin beach is a small, sheltered family beach on the bay side. There is a small parking area further up the village.

02 44 84 56 56

in Saint-Pierre-Quiberon

Poul Perneau Beach

A small, sheltered beach, accessible by foot from the Port d'Orange.

Poul Perneau Beach

in La Trinité-sur-Mer

Port Biren beach

Facing east, it offers a lovely view of the port and channel, with its ceaseless ballet of boats. Accessible on foot, swimming is possible at high tide. At low tide, it's a delight for anglers on foot.

02 44 84 56 56 Port Biren

in Quiberon

Fort Neuf Beach

Ideal for sailing and jet-skiing enthusiasts, this beach has a slipway for all sailboats and motorboats. Facing east, it shelters bathers from westerly winds. They can also enjoy the view of Quiberon Bay from the Fort's promontory. Parking at the foot of Fort Neuf.

02 44 84 56 56 Bd. de la Teignouse

in Locmariaquer

Saint-Pierre Beach

Surrounded by dunes and a small wooded area, this sloping beach is unsupervised but is very popular for its unspoiled beauty; it’s easy to swim here, even at low tide. There are parking lots nearby, but they fill up quickly. Access by bike is recommended. Saint Pierre Beach and Ster er Vered Cove…

02 44 84 56 56 Plage de Saint-Pierre

in Saint-Pierre-Quiberon

Lizeau Beach

The small sheltered beach is accessible via the footpath from Port d'Orange. Fishing is possible on foot. Dogs are allowed on Le Lizeau beach all year round.

02 44 84 56 56

in Plouharnel

Ty Hoche Beach

Immerse yourself in the natural beauty and serene ambience of Ty Hoche beach in Plouharnel. This Breton gem is the ideal place for a relaxing and invigorating getaway. Ty Hoche beach welcomes you with its fine golden sand, perfect for a relaxing day in the sun. The surrounding dunes add a wild,…

02 44 84 56 56 Rue de la Plage

in Erdeven

Kerminihy Beach

The wildest beach in the commune: both very large and covered in fine sand, it is open to all and tolerates naturism. Accessible from the Kerminihy parking lot to the west and the Barre d'Etel car park to the east, it is also divided into zones. Please refer to the signs in the Kerminihy parking…

02 44 84 56 56

in La Trinité-sur-Mer

Kervillen Beach

Kervillen beach is a south-facing sandy beach. A nearby parking lot with direct access to the beach provides convenient access by car. In July and August, a free mini-bus circulating in the commune serves this beach. The beach is ideal for safe swimming at any time of the year. In July and August,…

02 44 84 56 56 Kervillen

